

Project Overview

What is the Compatible Use Plan?

Hill Air Force Base Compatible Use Plan Project Timeline

The Compatible Use Plan (CUP) is...

- ▶ A federally funded grant program by the Department of Defense, Office of Economic Adjustment
- ▶ A community-led project
- ▶ A collection of information to make more informed decisions
- ▶ A plan that recommends appropriate actions to address compatibility, tailored to each stakeholder

The Hill Air Force Base (AFB) CUP is a collaborative effort between:

- ▶ Layton City
- ▶ Clearfield City
- ▶ Ogden City
- ▶ Riverdale City
- ▶ Roy City
- ▶ South Ogden City
- ▶ South Weber City
- ▶ Sunset City
- ▶ Uintah City
- ▶ Washington Terrace City
- ▶ Davis County
- ▶ Weber County
- ▶ Tooele County
- ▶ State and Federal Agencies
- ▶ Community Stakeholders
- ▶ Hill Air Force Base
- ▶ Utah Test and Training Range
- ▶ Little Mountain Test Facility

Why is it Important for Your Community?

- ▶ Protect the health, safety, welfare of area residents and maintain quality of life
- ▶ Guide development compatible with military operations and mission capability at Hill AFB
- ▶ Protect opportunities for growth in an economically, environmentally, and socially sustainable manner
- ▶ Maintain the economic vitality of the region

Why is it Important for Hill Air Force Base?

- ▶ Protect the health, safety, and welfare of military and civilian personnel at the installation
- ▶ Safeguard the ability of Hill AFB to accomplish its mission, maintain mission readiness, and support training objectives
- ▶ Enhance local partnership opportunities to support current and potential new missions

Get Involved!

Your Input is important! There are a number of ways you can contribute to the study and stay up-to-date on project progress.

Learn more at www.HillAFBCUP.com